Suggested recorded music: The Wee Cooper of Fife played by Deirdre Adamson

Finish in the order 312 on the opposite side.

All set to partner, then 2nd and 3rd couples cross left hands as 1st couple turn left hand to face 4th corner position.
- 31-40 1st couple dance Hello & Goodbye setting for 6 steps to second place on opposite side. 1st couple birl for 4 steps. At the end of the first time, 1st couple finish in the centre in second place nearer hands joined facing up. At the end of the second time, 1st couple finish in the centre in third place nearer hands joined and they dance bars 1-2, half turning the couple below them to finish in fourth place as the new couple begins.

Repeat having passed a couple.

The aim was to create a dance which gave the lead pair lots of opportunity for covering and synchronisation, culminating in the final birl at the end of "Hello-Goodbye" setting. J Johnston's dances in Minicrib provided the seed crystals from which this dance was developed, and my delight in them, the inspiration.

This dance is dedicated to all those who helped the devisor when studying for his certificate. There were many stooges who gave so freely of their time over several weeks and other volunteers who made sure there was always enough tea and coffee (and the occasional cake). Special thanks go to our musicians Keith Anderson and Judith Muir and our teacher Mervyn Short. 'Tapadh leibh' (pronounced tapah leyv) means thank you in Scottish Gaelic.
